Description

The 2021 70 reg Ford Ranger 2.0 TDCi 213 BHP Wildtrak 4x4 Double Cab Auto finished in Metallic Sea Grey is a striking and capable pickup that perfectly blends power, practicality, and premium comfort. As Ford's flagship pickup, the Wildtrak offers an exceptional combination of rugged performance and refined design, making it ideal for both professional use and everyday driving.

Beneath the bonnet lies Ford's advanced 2.0-litre EcoBlue Bi-Turbo diesel engine, producing an impressive 213 bhp and paired with a smooth automatic transmission. The intelligent 4x4 system delivers superb traction and stability across all terrains, ensuring confident performance whether tackling demanding job sites, towing heavy loads, or cruising on the open road.

The Metallic Sea Grey exterior enhances the Ranger's muscular and modern look, complemented by stylish alloy wheels and Wildtrak detailing. Practical features such as the load liner, parking sensors, and reverse camera make everyday use simple and efficient, while the tow bar adds extra versatility for hauling trailers or equipment. Auto headlights and front fog lights complete the functional yet refined exterior package.

Inside, the Wildtrak's interior is both durable and luxurious. Full leather seats — heated in the front with an electric driver's seat — provide excellent comfort and support, while the advanced infotainment system offers satellite navigation, DAB radio, Bluetooth connectivity, and CD playback. Air conditioning, cruise control, and power-assisted steering ensure a relaxed and enjoyable driving experience, with electric mirrors and windows adding everyday convenience.

Overall, this 2021 Ford Ranger 2.0 TDCi 213 BHP Wildtrak 4x4 Double Cab Auto in Metallic Sea Grey stands as a premium, high-performance pickup that excels in capability and comfort. With its refined styling, powerful drivetrain, and versatile features, it's the perfect choice for those seeking a dependable vehicle that performs as impressively as it looks.
