Description

2018 / 68 NISSAN NV400 2.3 DCI 130 bhp L3 H3 3500kg
FWD split compartment fridge / freezer with overnight. 170000 motorway miles.

One company owner with fsh and maintained regardless of cost.

Fitted with the best and most popular GAH unit with overnight standby.

The forward compartment is for frozen food and the back which is separated with a bulkhead is for fridge use. Both compartments could be use for fridge application of needed.

The fridge unit also has the added extra of 1ph overnight standby so the fridge can be plugged in whilst the van is not running and still work, this is great for previously evening loading etc or even just as a standby fridge.

This van has recently been serviced and still has 3 October 2024 MOT.

This van has very tidy bodywork having being wrapped during its life from new. Good tyres all's around.

PLEASE NOTE - it has a slight nitch in the syncros between 1st and 2nd gear hence this is at the price it is. This doesn't affect the overall drive but you can feel a slight nitch moving between the gears.

Its somethings that could be fixed relatively easy easy or could be left as it is for many years to come.

£8495 NO VAT.
