Description

This 2017 (67 reg) Citroën Berlingo 625 1.6 BlueHDi 100 LX L1H1 ETG6 Automatic, finished in Silver, is a smart, compact, and highly efficient small van equipped with the convenience of Citroën's smooth ETG6 automatic gearbox. Ideal for city driving, delivery work, and everyday business use, it offers excellent fuel economy and a comfortable, well-spec'd cabin.

Externally, the Berlingo presents a clean, professional look with the added practicality of twin side loading doors, making access to the load area quick and easy from either side. Parking sensors assist with tight manoeuvres, while auto headlights and front fog lights provide added confidence in poor visibility.

Inside, the LX trim delivers a solid level of equipment, including satellite navigation, cruise control, Bluetooth connectivity, DAB radio, and electric windows and mirrors. The cabin offers a comfortable and functional driving environment, with the ETG6 automatic transmission making stop-start traffic and urban routes effortless.

To the rear, a solid bulkhead ensures safety and keeps the cabin insulated from the load compartment, which is well-shaped and ready for daily commercial tasks. Power Assisted Steering (PAS) adds to the van's easy drivability.

Overall, this Citroën Berlingo 1.6 BlueHDi LX Auto is a practical, economical, and well-equipped compact van—perfect for anyone needing a reliable automatic L1 work vehicle with plenty of everyday usability.
