Description

This Iveco Daily 70C18H 4X2 Day Cab 7.2 Ton HGV 4750WB Vehicle Transporter is the ultimate solution for heavy-duty vehicle transportation, offering exceptional power, durability, and efficiency. With just 13,891 miles, this transporter is barely run in, ensuring outstanding reliability. Previously part of the KAZOO fleet, this vehicle was driven by professional drivers, meaning it has been well-maintained and carefully handled throughout its life. Powered by a 3.0L turbo diesel engine producing 180 BHP, paired with a smooth automatic transmission, it delivers strong pulling power, efficiency, and a comfortable drive. The spacious day cab features ergonomic seating, air conditioning, and an advanced infotainment system. With a reinforced chassis, heavy-duty suspension, and advanced braking system, it's designed for safe and stable transport. A serious transporter for serious work—don't miss out!
