The 2022 Ford Transit Custom 340 Leader 2.0 TDCI 130 L1H1 EcoBlue is a practical and dependable short wheelbase van, offering a perfect blend of capability, efficiency, and comfort. Powered by the 2.0-litre EcoBlue diesel engine delivering 130 BHP, it provides strong performance while remaining economical for both city and motorway driving.

Finished in a smart and professional design, the Custom Leader comes with rear shelving for organised storage, a tow bar for added versatility, and seat levers for improved cabin functionality. The addition of a large central touchscreen infotainment system makes connectivity and navigation simple, keeping everything within easy reach for the driver.

The interior is both durable and comfortable, equipped with air conditioning, electric windows, electric mirrors, and remote central locking for everyday convenience. The driver benefits from power assisted steering (PAS), ensuring a smooth and easy driving experience, even when fully loaded.

Built with Ford's renowned reliability and practicality, this Transit Custom Leader is ideal for tradespeople, delivery use, or as a dependable fleet vehicle. Combining efficient performance with a well-thought-out interior, it stands as a superb choice for those needing a robust and modern van.
