Description

This 2015 Nissan NV400 DCI 125 SE SHR Double Cab Dropside is a practical and versatile commercial vehicle designed to handle both crew and cargo with ease. Powered by a reliable 2.3L DCI diesel engine paired with a manual transmission, this model delivers dependable performance, strong fuel efficiency, and the capability to tackle demanding jobs day in and day out.

Finished in classic white and featuring a Dropside body, it's perfect for tradespeople and fleet use, offering easy access to the load area from all sides.

Please note: This is a double cab dropside van, with 4 back seats that can also be converted into a tool box for extra storage. Whether it's seats or storage, just let your sales consultant know, and we'll sort the rest.

Inside, you'll find essential comfort and convenience features including electric windows, electric door mirrors, cruise control, and a CD player for entertainment on the go. Remote central locking and power assisted steering (PAS) enhance security and ease of use, while the robust cabin layout is built to stand up to commercial demands.

A solid, no-nonsense workhorse with great utility and seating for the full crew, this NV400 is a smart and efficient solution for business on the move.
