Description

The 2024 74 reg Citroen Berlingo 1000 1.5 BlueHDi 100 L1 H1 Enterprise Fridge Van finished in White is a modern, efficient, and highly practical solution for businesses requiring reliable refrigerated transport. Powered by the economical 1.5 BlueHDi 100 BHP engine, it delivers smooth performance with excellent fuel efficiency, while the Enterprise specification ensures plenty of comfort and convenience on the road.

Designed as a fridge van, it comes fully lined and insulated to maintain temperature-sensitive loads, making it ideal for catering, food delivery, or pharmaceutical use. The bulkhead ensures separation between the cab and load space, while parking sensors provide added confidence in tighter spaces.

The cab is well-equipped with features including air conditioning, cruise control, Bluetooth connectivity, auto headlights, DAB radio, electric mirrors and windows, and power assisted steering (PAS), offering both driver comfort and modern functionality.

Combining compact dimensions for city driving with impressive load practicality and refrigeration capability, this Citroen Berlingo Enterprise Fridge Van is the perfect choice for businesses needing a dependable, economical, and professional refrigerated vehicle.
