Description

The 2021 71 reg Fiat Fiorino 1.3 16V Multijet II 80 BHP Tecnico finished in Black is a compact and efficient small van designed for urban professionals who need practicality, reliability, and low running costs. Compact in size but big on capability, the Fiorino Tecnico offers an ideal solution for tradesmen, couriers, and businesses operating in and around busy city environments.

Powered by Fiat's proven 1.3-litre Multijet II diesel engine producing 80 bhp, this Fiorino delivers strong fuel economy and dependable performance, making it perfect for stop-start city driving or longer daily routes. The lightweight chassis and tight turning circle make manoeuvring in confined spaces effortless, while power-assisted steering ensures excellent control and comfort on every journey.

Finished in sleek Black, the exterior projects a professional and modern image, complemented by practical features such as rear parking sensors for stress-free reversing and a bulkhead for added safety and noise reduction. The load area is ply lined, offering protection and durability for transporting tools, materials, or goods efficiently.

Inside, the Tecnico trim brings a higher level of comfort and equipment, featuring air conditioning, Bluetooth connectivity, electric mirrors and windows, and an intuitive cabin layout designed to make daily use simple and enjoyable.

Overall, the 2021 Fiat Fiorino 1.3 Multijet II 80 BHP Tecnico in Black is a compact, economical, and highly capable small van that perfectly balances practicality with efficiency. With its smart design, well-equipped interior, and strong reliability record, it's an excellent choice for businesses seeking a cost-effective and professional vehicle for everyday operations.
